

“We need to ensure that Dartmouth students from all backgrounds continue to have access to one of the best liberal arts educations in the world. Through diverse perspectives and experiences, students are challenged to grow in their understanding, empathy, and leadership.”

—Stephen McKenna '91, Chair, Dartmouth College Fund Committee

The 1769 Society is a community of generous alumni, parents, and friends who demonstrate the power of collective giving to make Dartmouth accessible for all students. 1769 Society members account for only 10 percent of donors but provide 80 percent of the DCF funds Dartmouth uses for its vital financial aid program.

Your leadership giving—and membership in the 1769 Society—make a real and immediate impact on Dartmouth, keeping our community vibrant, diverse, and thriving.

Members join with a gift of $2,500 or more annually

Young alumni may join at these levels:

Class of 2023	$100
Classes of 2020, 2021, 2022	$250
Classes of 2017, 2018, 2019	$500
Class of 2015, 2016	$1,000

Three Ways to Reach the 1769 Society Level

- Dartmouth couples may combine gifts.
- Add your employer's match to your gift total.
- Make a recurring gift.
